DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - Group I. Claims 11-14 and 21 are, drawn to a knock lever mechanism, classified in class 226, subclass 154.
 - Group II. Claims 15 and 22-23 are, drawn to a web conveyor having a servo pick assembly and a servo helper assembly driven by a servo motor, classified in class 226, subclass 42.
 - Group III. Claims 16-17 are, drawn to a knock lever mechanism and a secondary guide strip, classified in class 226, subclass 59.
 - Group IV. Claims 24-32 are, drawn to a secondary guide strip, classified in class 226, subclass 91.
2. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions of group III and groups I and IV are related as combination and subcombination. Inventions in this relationship are distinct if there is evidence that the combination does not rely on the subcombination for patentability. See MPEP 806.05 (c), example 3. For example, group IV is evidence that the combination of group III does not rely on the knock lever mechanism of group I for patentability, and conversely, group I is evidence that the combination of group III does not rely on the secondary guide strip of group IV for patentability.

Claim 10 will be examined if any of group I-III is elected.

Art Unit: 3724

Claim 10 links inventions of groups I-III. The restriction requirement of the linked inventions is subject to the nonallowance of the linking claim(s), claim 10. Upon the allowance of the linking claim(s), the restriction requirement as to the linked inventions shall be withdrawn and any claim(s) depending from or otherwise including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) will be entitled to examination in the instant application. Applicant(s) are advised that if any such claim(s) depending from or including all the limitations of the allowable linking claim(s) is/are presented in a continuation or divisional application, the claims of the continuation or divisional application may be subject to provisional statutory and/or nonstatutory double patenting rejections over the claims of the instant application. Where a restriction requirement is withdrawn, the provisions of 35 U.S.C. 121 are no longer applicable. In re Ziegler, 44 F.2d 1211, 1215, 170 USPQ 129, 131-32 (CCPA 1971). See also MPEP § 804.01. Inventions of groups I-II and II-III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. For example, the device of group I could have a different web conveyor than those set forth in group II, and conversely, the device of group II could be a different feeding mechanism than those set forth in group I, the device of group III could have a different web conveyor than those set forth in group II, and conversely, the device of group II does not require a secondary guide strip and could be a different feeding mechanism than those set forth in group III See MPEP § 806.05(d).

Art Unit: 3724

There is an excessive burden on the office to examine all of these inventions together, as shown by their search. See MPEP 808.02(C). For example, the device of group I will need to be searched in class 226, subclass 154, along with a unique text search. Group II would not be searched as above, but would instead be searched in class 226, subclass 42 accompanied by a different text search.

3. Inventions of groups II and IV are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention of group II has separate utility such as a device not requiring the secondary guide strip set forth in group IV, and conversely, invention of group IV has separate utility such as a device not requiring the web conveyor set forth in group II. See MPEP § 806.05(d).

4. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and because of their recognized divergent subject matter, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

6. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Stephen Choi whose telephone number is 571-272-4504. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday 9:00-3:30.

Art Unit: 3724
